

WANTED:

We are looking for SIX motivated teens that would like to participate in a Music Video Workshop, hosted by Holley Family Village in Brooklyn, Michigan on March 9-11, 2012. This will be all expenses paid trip – sponsored by the Deaf Kids and Teens Club and the Deaf Services Center. We will be leaving after school on Friday, March 9th and returning the afternoon of Sunday, March 11th.

If you are interested, fill out the registration form. The forms will be randomly selected and the lucky winners will be contacted!

*Registration Deadline: February 23rd
Winners will be notified by February 24th.
Details to follow.*

To all WINNERS: You will be required to pay a $20 refundable deposit for the workshop. You will receive the $20 back upon your arrival for the trip.

D-PAN Music Video Weekend

March 9 - 11, 2012

The Holley Institute

Learning New Words for Children and Adults with Deafness, Hearing and Vision Loss

D-PAN Music Video Weekend is a unique opportunity for deaf and hard of hearing students to create an original music video.

Open to students 13 – 18 years old
(Students under 13 years of age may be accepted with a letter of recommendation from the child's teacher)

Sean Forbes will work with students who want to be in front of the camera, teaching them the ins and outs of stage work. He will share his talents while helping students discover their own talents.

For the students who prefer to be behind the scenes Adrean Mangiardi will use his expertise in videography and film editing to teach students how to use video cameras and audio equipment.

For more information contact:
Karen Parker, DKTC Coordinator
614-841-1991 phone/tty
614-515-6065 videophone
DKTC95@dsc.org
Facebook: Deaf Kids and Teens Club

